no we did not export in 2013. We did not export in 2014.
The company (RGA) is for all intents and purposes out of business.
The corporation still exists but no business is being transacted. There are NO employees
NO business of any kind has been transacted in the past 2 years.
We will under NO circumstances be shipping ANY slabs anywhere in the future
thanks for your help

Dear Sir:

RGA industries has not and will not export any SLABS. We filed for permission to ship but we never shipped anything in 2010 or 2011 (and have not shipped in 2012, 2014 or 2014). We do not plan on shipping any SLAB in the future

The RGA industries email address is no longer being used.
